1. The Politburo of the Communist Party of India (CPI) has recommended to the Central Committee that a CPI General Congress be held "soon but not before the end of the year."*
2. By 3 November the Central Committee had taken no action on the recommendation, which was made in October.
3. The Central Committee feels that the latest Party policy has placed too much emphasis on rural activities and on rural representation in Party leadership.

25X1X* [REDACTED] Comment. The recommendation will probably be accepted in an effort to end dissension within the Party.

25X1A

25X1A [REDACTED] Comment. [REDACTED] talk in CPI circles of a General Congress in December 1950 or January 1951.
